AUBURN MAN INDICTED FOR WORKER'S COMPENSATION FRAUD

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—United States Attorney McGregor W. Scott announced today that a federal grand jury returned a 15-count indictment charging MARK ANTHONY CORRENTI, 49, of Auburn, Calif., with theft of government money, mail fraud, and making false statements.

This case is the product of an investigation by the Department of Defense, Defense Criminal Investigative Service, Sacramento, and the United States Department of Labor.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Kyle Reardon, who is prosecuting the case, the indictment alleges that starting in 2000, CORRENTI made false statements about his employment and income that caused him to receive over $200,000 in government worker's compensation benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act to which he was not entitled. He is alleged to have falsely stated that he was not employed and had no income between the years 2000 and 2008, when in fact, he was the owner of "Safe N Sound Boat and RV Storage" and earned income through that business.

If convicted of these charges, CORRENTI faces a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison, a fine of $250,000, and a three year term of supervised release. However, the actual sentence will be dictated by the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, which take into account a number of factors, and will be imposed at the discretion of the court.

The charges are only allegations, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
